THE MAIDEN OF SAN PETE.

WRITTEN FOR THE NEW YORK CLIPPER, BY CAPT. JACK CRAWFORD, THE PORT SCOUT.

The face of Mormondom shone bright Beneath the Autumn sky. The cottages gleamed snowy white At base of mountain high A soothing stillness seemed to hold The scepter o'er the land, In keeping with the saintly fold Ruled by the prophet's hand. A sense of languor, soft and sweet, Held all in beautiful San Pete.

From out the populated home Of Elder Good I strayed— A shower of light from heaven's dome Cast brightness o'er the glade. The silvery streamlet by my side Flowed softly in its bed, And furry rabbits, timid eyed, From near my pathway fled. The whistling quail from its retreat Cast melody o'er fair San Pete.

Far down the stream on grassy sward Reclined a maiden fair, A chosen "daughter of the Lord," A flower of beauty rare. In sober "Brigham cloth" her form Of faultless lines was draped, But love lit glances, soft and warm, From out her eyes escaped. The brooklet kissed the bare, brown feet Of that fair daughter of San Pete.

She eved me with a timid glance As slowly I drew near, Wondering what freak of fickle chance Had drawn my footsteps there. Her lips half parted, and a smile Of welcome lit her face As deft I raised my Derby tile, With Chesterfieldian grace, And murmured of my joy to meet So nice a girl in fair San Pete.

In dulcet tones she bade me "hush," Said I was "jest in fun," My praises really "made her blush," She "had a mind to run." The "city gents all talked that way-They thought it was polite, She thought she "hadn't ought to stay-She hadn't, honor bright." Then splashed the water with her feet, maid of beautiful San Pete.

A brighter, fresher, fairer face Man never looked upon, A neater type of girlish grace Dwelt not beneath the sun. Her hair, in looseness unrestrained, In golden beauty twined Around a neck all russet stained With kisses from the wind. A rustic nymph from head to feet Was that fair maiden of San Pete.

I felt my inexperienced heart Grow to abnormal size As timid glances shot athwart The mirrors of her eyes. Quick I obeyed her modest hint, Beside her sat me down, And larger feet of roseate tint Were near her feet of brown. We sat and splashed in converse sweet, I and the maiden of San Pete.

The little fishes in the brook Swam slowly 'round our toes And seemed to ask with every look, "I wonder what are those?"
The silvery shimmers of the sun Upon the waters flashed. As there we sat in youthful fun, And splashed, and splashed, and splashed. Oft would my understandings meet Those of the maiden of San Pete.

I told her of the land beyond The rugged mountain chain, Hinted at Cupid's silken bond, Of search of years in vain To find a mate to share my life, A maiden free from art, An innocent, unworldly wife And fate had turned my wandering feet Toward the valley of San Pete.

I whispered that in her I found The queen I long had sought, Told of the love-web she had wound About my heart, and not Another maid in all the land Could lure me from her side
If she would give to me her hand And be my rustic bride. Then faster flew the damp, brown feet Of that dear maiden of San Pete.

Pressed for an answer, thus she spake: "Yer talk sounds mighty queer An' I've a notion you'd best take A skip away from here. For I'm the Elder's seventh wife. An' I'm his darlin', too; If I should squeal, you bet yer life 'T'd be the last o' you !" I left her side on frightened feet

And bade forewell to fair San Pete.

THEY SAY: That great men are not all six feet tall; that we cannot do any man a greater wrong than to misjudge him; that every woman puts her finger in the pie, whether she makes it or not; that whatsoever a man soweth, he shall reap more weeds than anything else; that to be popular you must never contradict people, even if you are right that it is not necessary for a stove to be an artist, but it ought to be able o draw; that although much has been said as to the slowness of the turtle's movements, all we can say is, he generally arrives in time for soup.

Let the eye wonder to the uttermost of human sibility and behold-nothing.

A western plain, pure and simple; hundreds, ave thousands of square miles of nothing. Even the sage brush, at least the progressive portion, had emigrated to more propitious regions, leaving behind, a few aged specimens that were too inanimate, too garbled and scrawney, to cast a shadow. The random coyote, true to nature, slinking, always slinking, occassionally shaded the scragley bunch | ache

In this sterile spot, the musician rusted and decayed from inactivity while the man existed and the lung breathed pure air.

Upon his arrival, two years since, he didn't know a saddle sinch from a "kyuse;" he didn't care to know; hope was lost, the only desire known to him, save the one never absent yearning for home and friends, was, that he might yield this creature to the long future, with as little inconvenience to others, as possible.

Dailey got better in spite of himself. In six weeks time, astride the white mule, he took and fetched the cows from pasture, cared for his horse, and scarcely realizing it himself, gradually became an active man; but he could never go back, unless, as Tom put it, he should "make all 'rangements fer dumpin' ground by telegram.

His uncle owned the ranch, and it was through his instrumentality that Dailey still breathed. The uncle and an adopted daughter, whom Dailey had never seen, were on the Western coast. Dailey had hoped, longed, that they might stop at the ranch upon their return. It was now an accomplished fact. It was a proud day for Tom when, with his four in hand, he cracked his whip and swung out of Jimtown, on the box at his side, Catherine, inside,

The ride to Star X was made with many a merry from Catherine, and snatch of song, while Ton with his unconscious witticisms, provincialisms and westernisms, kept the girl in laughter.

When the start home was made, Tom's happy mood had left him; the sun in his unusually sparkling eye had passed behind a storm cloud; he se much depressed; spoke in monosyllables, when at all; walked his cayuse, occasionally giving him a rigorous dig in the ribs with the dangling spur, immediately begging his pardon for the act.

Tom did not speak again, even while assisting her to dismount; did not speak to bailey, who asked him a question, looked with surprise at not receiving an answer, then betook himself to Catherine.

Ton did not enter the house for an hour, though the old gong had sounded supper no less than half a dozen times.

At dusk he went to the door and called Dailey out, mumbling something something about Charcoal, bailey followed to the barn as rapidly as possible, for Charcoal had been aimost a companion to him. Tom was much agitated. Thus th' hoss; he's alright, 'n' they's none better. You tell me that now, 'tis within my reach, that the one being upon earth, who is to me the here and the hereafter, would listen to me. Ah, 'tis a sweet thought; but, Tom, before I would cause to Catherine one pang of misery, the heart ache for a moment, that I've endured for years; before the bitter of care and sickness should engulf the sweets of love and health, through any act of mine, I'd smut this wavering, flickering light, and wait for her beyond."

As the coach rumbles over the sea of sand to meet the East bound passenger, from the door of the lowly cabin floats the sweetest, suddest strains of all, the wedding march, Lohengrin.

Crowds—Little Activity Shown Among the Regular Theatres—"The Little Duke" Successfully Revived in St. Louis.

[Special Dispatches to The New York Chpper.]

St. Louis, Aug. 6—An immense auddence greeted the presentation of "The Little Duke" tonight at Uhrig's Cave, for the first time in ten years. As Fairice, the Little Duke, Helen Bertram scored a hit. Her performance was an excellent piece of character acting, and she was repeatedly encored. Wm. Pruette as De Montaland was brilliant. Gertrude Lodge capably filled the part of the school directress. Frank Deshon as Frimouse, the tutor, kept the house in a rear; Minnie Bridges, as the governess, was fine; Toma Hanlon was warmly greeted upon her reappearance. She played the Little Duchess excellently ... The Union Trust Roof Garden was amply filled last night to see the change of bill. Fulgora and Gilbert Farley are still the attractions, though there are several new turns... The open air entertainments were well patronized Sunday. Suburban Park was crowded afternoon and night and a good vaudeville bill was presented.... The same can be said of Terrace Park, Central Garden and Bellevue Park. ... Managers (George McManus, of the Grand Opera House, and Oille Hagan, of the Hagan, returned yesterday from New York, where they had been making bookings... ... Wm. Garen, of New York, has been appointed manager of Haylin's Theatre in the place of Will Jones. The prices at this theatre will be reduced.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—The Chicago Opera House and the Schiller are the only ones of the down town houses that are at present open Sunday night, and as a result both "All Baba" and "Little Robinson Crusoe" had big houses Aug. 4.... There was the usual large attendance at Hopkins' Theatre, and at his new house on the West Side, which opened Sunday, there was a much larger crowd than could be admitted... The Roof Garden opened well with a particularly attractive programme... Pain's pyrotechnical attraction at the Coliesum Garden is announced as being in its last week. The spectacle usually heard in this class of entertainments.

l'HLADELPHA, Aug. 6.—Last night was rather warm, but the dijou opened with a crowd, after a large attendance during the afternoon. The little Rossows again evoked shouts of laughter and exclamations of wonder. Sadie Cushman and Herbert Holcombe rendered some popular operatic selections to the evident satisfaction of the audience, and the olympic quartet received the compliment of an extra recall, while the rest of the bill was entirely up to the high reputation of the house......

The Lyceum was well filled, the May Temple Burlesque Co, holding over from last week, but making some changes in the first part, which proved highly entertaining. The regular seasons opens 10.

Bostos, Aug. 6.—The Grand Duchess' was pro-entertaining. The regular seasons opens to.

Bosron, Aug. 6.—'The Grand Duchess' was produced at the Castle Square Theatre last night, and Lillie Salinger, the new prima donna, made a lit in the title role. It was the first chance she has had to show her vocal power.....'Lost in New York,' which opened the season at the Bowdoin Square Theatre, was again presented to a great house last night....The last week of "Kismet" at Tremont Theatre began with a luge audience. The new business in it is decidedly good.....At Keith's New Theatre and the other popular price houses business was good all around. was good all around.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 6.—The Buckingham presented a brilliant appearance in its new dress Sunday night on the initial night of the season. An old time variety show was given to an audience that crowded the house....The new Gem opened to a fair house.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville.-Buckingham Theatre-The regular eason at this house opens Aug. 5, with a variety show composed of the following people: Golden, Chalfant and Golden, Mamie Kline, Byron and Blanche, Moore Sisters, William Sherer, Kherns and Glanche, Moore Sisters, William Sherer, Kherns and Cole, Maud Detty, Finnegan and Gordon, Carmen Sisters, Daisy Golden, and Harry and Kitty Pink. Since the close of last season the painters have been busy making the house look bright and attractive. The ceilings have been frescoed and the walts gilded and artistically finted in blue and gold. The boxes and chairs are ornamented in the same colors. Last year's force of employes will again be found at the house, with Col. savage as treasurer and Bob Smith in the box office.

New Gent Theaprie.—New faces for week of 5: Jenkius and Russell, Ellis Teroy, Manite Lee, Parker Sisters, Ada Haney, Ada West, Ella Norman, Hattie Masson and Eugene Mitchell. Business fair.

OHIO.

Cincinnati.—Managers Harry Rainforth and John H. Havlin have returned from the East, but Mr. Havlin only lingered long enough to shake hands and then moved on to St. Louis, Mo. The season at the Grand Opera House is to be inaugurated as usual by a burnt cork revival, and Fields' Minstrels will appear the last week in Angust. Mr. Rainforth says that, as far as their firm is concerned, the Abbey and Grau and Damrosch Grand Opera Companies are booked for Cincinnati. The trustees of Music Hall are still figuring on remodeling the building and putting in a permanent proscenium, so they refused to rent that hall for the opera season. The Walnut Street Theatre will probably be the scene of these engagements destined to be the most brilliant since the old days of the opera festivals, when George Ward Nichols was Cincinnati's greatest patron of music.

Robinson's Opera House.—The work of transformation is still in progress and lovers of amusements are going to find this house one of the handsomest in the West. The experiment of increasing a theatrical tariff at a popular priced theatre is one that has to be tested, but Managers Scott & Cummings are certainly going to fulfill all the promises of improvements they have made.

FREEMAN'S THEATRE.—The lessees of Havlin's have not yet taken hold, but it was announced during the week that May Hosmer would be the leading lady of the new stock dramatic company, and that "Hoodman Blind," "The Black Fiag," "Forgiven" and other successes are to be given. Two performances are to be put on daily and between the plays there will be continuous variety.

KOHL & MIDDLETON'S MUSEE THEATRE.—Ed and John Gilfillan, musical duc Ben Van Dyke, the Earlscott Sisters, Howard and Doyle, Charmine, and "The Old South," patterned after "Black America," opened Aug. 3, under the joint managem $\frac{1}{2}$ of the New South, "patterned after "Black America," opened Aug. 3, under the joint managem $\frac{1}{2}$ of the week.

Cleveland.—There still seems to be an unusual lack of amusements for our Summer entertainment. For some reason the amusement caterers in the theatrical line have not done much for Cleveland

For some reason the amusement caterers in the theatrical line have not done much for Cleveland during this season.

Haltnorth's Garden Theatre.—The Murray-Lane Opera Co. Is still attracting good ousiness to this place. "Heart and Hand" was very acceptably presented during past week. "The Lilly of Killarney" is the attraction week of Aug. 5.

ECCLID AVENER OFERA HOUSE.—The picture "Sappno" is still on exhibition here and doing very nicely. The price of admission has been reduced. Manager Hartz and his family have returned from their vacation at Little Mountain, and the general house cleaning at the theatre has commenced preparatory to the opening with Fields' Minstrels 22.

CLEVELAND THEATRE.—As noted in last week's letter, extensive alterations are being made in this house, the entire front being changed and repainted. It will practically be a new house so far as exits and stairways to the balconies and galleries are concerned. The regular season opens Aug. 12, with Montgomery Irving, in "The Prince of the Mountains."

Toledo.—An excellent vaudeville bill was presented at Robinson's Casino week of Aug. 4, by the following people: Richard O'Gorman, character dialect comedian; Norwbod Bros., horizontal bar performers; Carr and Ingram, in an aerial act; the Kasten Sisters, in German songs; the Burts, in a sketch; Le Drew, female impersonator, and the Morrellos..... It has been definitely announced by Manager L. M. Boda that the new Valentine Theatre will be opened formally Oct. 31, by Camille D'Arville and her company, for a three nights' engagement, playing "Madeline" and "A Daughter of the Revolution."

Volution."

Lima.—Billy Van's Minstrels will open the season at Faurot's Aug. 15.

Notes.—Faurot's Opera House never looked handsomer than it does now that Manager Livermore's improvements have been completed. With new scenery throughout, by Chas. Thompson, new draperies, furniture and carpets, and a complete general overhauling and painting, it looks like a new house....Manager Livermore will open the St. Marys, O., New Park Theatre with "Finnigan's Bail," Aug. 15, and his Delphos House, 7..... These theatres have also been completely overhauled.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul.—At the Metropolitan Opera House the Wilbur Opera Co. nad a big business in their farewell week of July 28, playing seven nights and four matinees, and including a large part of the repertory of the company. The company goes to Duluth. An almost entirely new series of living pictures was shown. The house will be closed after this week until the opening of the regular season, 25. Manager Scott returned from a trip to Chicago 1.

BODEGA.—For week of 5, Kelly and Bertha, Ritchie and Ritchie, Mable Carew, the Brabams, Lewis and Paul, George B, Gardner, Sam Yager and the stock. Closing 4, Welch and Francis, and Mile, Morrell. Business has been only fair.

World Players

- "Spider and Fly," M. B. Leavitt's spectacular extravaganza, will begin its farewell tour of Amer.

Ica, which embraces all the principal cities from

Maine to California, on Aug. 26. Mr. Leavitt promises to surpass his previous efforts. The text has been entirely rewritten, and the company re organized, having been recruited from the very best talent in Europe and America that was ob tainable. Everything is new, scenery, costumes, mechanical and electrical effects, bright, catchy music, new and attractive printing of novel de signs. The company comprises fifty people, among whom are: Dawn Griffith, Gwendoline North,

Violet Leslie, Ethel Kennedy, Laura Imber, changes.

—"Old Rube Tanner" Notes: We have perfected our arrangements for the season of 1895-96, and shall open for the season at Fishkill, N. Y., Aug. 3. John J. Black will enact the title role, and if the advance sale is any criterion, he will be confronted with a house packed from pit to dome. Our printing is all new and very attractive, by the Eric Lithograph Co., and our programmer, Wm. Chidister, is doing some fine work ahead. We carry eighteen people besides our star, Mr. Black, and a string band and classic orchestra, all special scenery and some very startling stage effects, an acting pony, Rube, and prize St. Bernard dog, Tanner. We anticipate a prosperous season.

—"In Sight of St. Paul's," Sutton Vane's latest drama, will be produced at the Bowdoin Square Theatre, Boston, Sept. 3, and will be followed by "Northern Lights." Emily Rigl plays the leads in "In Sight of St. Paul's."

— Clara Coleman goes with "A Span of Life."

— Freddy Huke returns to Europe Aug. 15.

— Mattie Byrne, the youngest of the Byrne Bros., has withdrawn from the "Eight Bells" Company and goes with "Spider and Fly."

— Any Stone goes with Charles Ellis.

— W. A. Whitecar has been engaged for the leads for "The Silver Lining," to be produced in Chicago early in October.

— Rose Eytinge has been engaged by Richard Mansfield.

World Players

Notes from the Frost & Fanshawe Co.: We are now en route through Ohio, to play our fair dates well. We have passed the Summer in the East, as far as Lake Ontario. We had a two weeks' stay at Sodus Point, N. Y., fishing, bathing, etc. Mr. Fanshawe' play, "Ass Jenkins," made a big hit there, packing the house with the Summer guests. Our repertory this season will be entirely new, all the plays from Mr. Fanshawe's pen, and includes "Mighty Million" (at title claimed by a Boston dramatist, which Mr. F. has held for four years), the new idea drama, entitled "The Curse of the Soil," "A False Heart," "A Woman's Life," "An Arena Venus," "A Gilded Beggar," "The Wheel of Life," "The Printer's Devil," and "Under a Sliver Mask." A brass band and orchestra will soon be added, and the company enlarged. An old member, W. B. Patton, formerly of Russel and Patton, joins this week, making his third season. Our new drama will be put on in October, and a lour of the South booked. A novel feature of this play will be a flying machine, the first to be used on any stage, the effect being invented and patented by Mr. Fanshawe. Our paper will be new, and everything points to a prosperous season, the fifth year without closing. Our recent CLIPTER ad. brought us in over four hundred letters. The roster: Frost & Fanshawe, stage director; F. H. Frost, business manager; W. C. Macauley, Robert Harris, Harry Dellmonet, Frank Ferris, W. B. Patton, Allen Ford, Mabel Frost, Flora Prost, Irene Frost, Fanny Frost and Julia Martin, pianist.—Thos. J. Grady goes out the coming season in the new farce comedy, "Jolly old Chums," under the management of Chas. R. Bugbee, who has engaged one of the strongest companies that appear with that class of attractions. Among those of prominence are: Carry Lamont, who has been starring in her own plays for the last two seasons; Budd Ross, Lillian Stillinan, Harry G. Lester, Hattle Befrard, Jeanne Graves, W. J. Holmes, Edna West, Harry Hughes, Oretta Schermerhorn, late with "Trincess Bonnie" and "Tycoon" Co.'s; Chas. O. Wallace, F. Clinton Scott, W. C. Ott, the Misses Chase, Meyers, Williamson and Engler. ### LAURA BIGGAR

Was born in Wilmington, Del., and received her earliest stage experience at the age of fifteen when she went upon tour with a company presenting "Fortune's Fo I" and "Called Back," in both of which plays s appeared. Her success with this company led to an engagement at the Grand Opera House, S Francisco, Cal., when she appeared in "Snow ake," in which she played the principal role. In this play she made a very favorable impression and her sweet voice and fine presence led to her engage. ake," in which she played the principal role. In this play she made a very favorable impression and her sweet voice and fine presence led to her engagement at the Tivoli, where she next appeared, singing in opera for one season. She remained upon the Pacific Coast for the next three years, playing such roles as Eliza in "After Dark" and Usane in "She." In the latter role, especially, she won considerable local fame and became a public favorite. She subsequently made a tour of the South in the above mentioned plays, and shortly afterwards she came very prominently into notice while starring in the East and South in "The Clemenceau Case." Following her connection with this play she rested for one year at a ranch she had purchased in Southern California. At the close of that vacation she came East to play the role of the Widow in Hoyts "A Trip to Chinatown," in which she met with much success. While filling this engagement she was married to Burt Haverly, who was playing Welland Strong in the same company. She next, in company with her husband, traveled for one season with "The Passing Show." She is at present under special engagement with Messix, Hoyt & McKee for the role of Lida Skiddons, the "Queen of Buriesque" in "A Black Sheep" for the tour it is now making upon the Pacific Coast. During the coming season she will be under the management of Messix, Jony, Conant & Garrison, who comprise the H. S. Taylor's Manager's Exchange, and will star, jointly with Burt Haverly, in Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown," with which they have both been so prominently indentified throughout the country. Miss Biggar to use the name by which she is professionally known owns a Summer home at Coronado Beach, Cal. She is a woman of renarkably fine presence and of great vivacity, and is admirably fitted for the position of a comedy star.

NOTES FROM THE GREAT EXPOSITION CIRCUS.—We are now in our second week in the country, after show ing in Chicago for three solid months to a packed ing in Chicago for three soild months to a packed canvas. Our business in the country so far has been big, and Manager J. C. O'Brien, who goes about with a smile, says the coming Winter has no terrors for him. Our genial treasurer, Sam. Kohn, dispenses the silver, gold and paper to the performers every Wednesday. We have a 100ft top, with two 35ft middle pieces, and three poles, and when ers every Wednesday. We have a 10oft, top, with two 35ft, middle pieces, and three poles, and when we spread all our canvas the rural visitors say "it's the real ching." Harry Wilson is our efficient equestrian director and ring master, and a more thorough, and it is our concert director and ring master, and a more thorough has not lost its cunning Judging from the large crowds that stay to hear the concert after listening to one of his silver tongued effusions. Jack Dalton has charge of our canvas, with twenty assistants, and the top goes up and down on time with clocklike regularity. We certainly have a great ring performance, our tournament introduces over forty horses and riders, and never fails to elicit the applause of the natives. Miss Lowande, in her principal act, is doing some fine work, while Honey and Murphy, with the triple horizontal bars, never fail to wake "em up and get round upon round of applause at the finish of their act. These two boys, although new to this past of the country, are as good as the best of them, and their act is one of dexterity and grace. The Carriers, in their carrying act, always secure an encore, and Alec Lowande, with his dancing rope, always sets them thinking. Al. Nash, our singing clown, gets there, while Al. Fenney, with his funny giraffe, is great. Al. Johnson is doing a great four horse act, and his riding is a fitting finale to our programme, which will rank among the best. Everybody has plenty of money, and all are looking towards the close of the season with a confidence that betokens an easy conscience and a good, fat pocketbook.

towards the close of the season with a confidence that betokens an easy conscience and a good, fat pocketbook.

ITEMS FROM GOLMAR BROS.' CIRCUS AND MENAGerie.—We are progressing finely, and all hands are enjoying good health. Everything about the show is as fine looking as the day we opened. In everytown and city we have visited we hear nothing but words of praise, and the verdict of the masses is: "You have a fine snow; come and visit us again." The performers and band boys are talking baseball again, but judging from the way they limp around from the effects of their last game, it will protably amount to nothing but talk. E. V. Hocum tried his new principal horse Saturday night for the first time before an audience. Harry Goine is breaking in some new horses for a six horse act. Wm. Knupple, cornet soloist, is a recent addition to Prof. Harry Sylvester' Operatic Orchestra. Fred P. Harlow's trombone solos are making a hit and W. B. Coup's cornet solos are doing likewise. Prof. A. E. Bauscher is still teaching the boys the manly art of self defence. Mrs. A. C. Bauscher handles the ribbons on her trick horse, Lilias, in a scientific manner, especially when the horse does his fancy side steps. Prof. Harry Sylvester has organized a club known as the Rainy Day Boys. Carl Fleming, Jacob Pautious, W. B. Coup, harry McVenn, Wm. Knupple, Fred P. Harlan and Nathan Norris have joined the order. It's a hard matter to find out what the object of the club is. James Fitzgerald wanted to join, but President ber.

Sylvester said Fitz was too dry to become a member.

HURLBURT & CAHOON NOTES.—Hurlburt & Cahoon's Combined Shows, now in Kansas, while lighting the elements, are still on top, with good prospects ahead. Elmer Young, boss of sideshow canvas, who was injured by falling from centre pole at Marshall, Mo., has since died in a hospital at Kansas City, Mo. Some one cut a main gray on the centre pole, which fell, causing the injury to Mr. Young. A. T. Scott, formerly our treasurer, is now acting as contractor and general agent.

GRO. W. GALLAGHER, general agent of Scribner & Smith's Circus, has added two more billiposters to the advance. Chas. Carson and Geo. Lawscin joined 20, making ten men in all. T. Behinger is still in charge of paper. C. G. Wise has recovered from a severe illness, and is again looking after the programme. Wm. Bohmer is head lithographer.

MERKER AND MACK have closed a two weeks' successful engagement with Bentley's Circus, in this city. GRO. PARENTO, gymnast and equilibrits, is one of the features with Tuttle & Co. S Circus.

JAS. RWIN, head balancer, and Delmain and O'Brien, acrobats, joined John H. Sparks' Circus, at Altoons. Business is reported to be very sactisfactory with this show.

lowest ebb just now, but the tide will begin to turn at the end of this week, when the Lyceum opens its regular season, and by the end of fact week it will be coming in strongly with the opening of the National, Forepaugh's and the People's.

The Bijot.—This is the last week of the Rossow Brothers, and these wonderful little fellows have certainly had a tremendous success. Sadie Cushman and Herbert Holcombe, in operatic selections; A. O. Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Romalo Brothers, acrobats, are in the bill, as are also the Midgleys, Pollier and Hysms, Charley Case, Redding and Stanton, Olympia Quartet, Charles E. Grapewin, Fish and Quigg, Morton and Mack, Carlin and Clark, and the Four Players, John J. Kennedy, George Barbler, Leonore Hassan and Carrier Hatcher, in "Pygandion and Galatea Up to Date." Last week's bill was a specially attractive one. In addition to the Rossow Brothers, the Three Donazettas and Brothers Lemoyne were exceptionally good in their acts, and the Taree Hawthorne Sisters and Netle De Coursey, who sang "One of the Gatety Giris," proved to be both actresses and singers of a high order of merit. Bushiess, of course, was good.

LYCKEM.—The May Temple Burlesque Company continues until Saturday matinee, and on Saturday night the regular season opens with Miaco's City Club Burlesque Co., which was very successful at this house last season. Business the past week has been 100d, and the show given well up to fine standard. The new decorations are nearly completed and will probably be ready for the opening night of the regular season.

Notes.—The Little Phillies," electric baseball, continue at the Walnut. —The stock company at Torquangh's, which opens next week in "Harbor Lights," includes George Learock, Fanny McIntyre, cripte Paimoni, Jessie Bonstelle, A. The nouse shows a crowd at every performance, and the revised edition of Carroll and Kerker's operatic carray agains, which was presented last Friday evening, is an eminently befuting improvement upon the original version. Faul West, who has for, and is a well known hoston newspaper man, has been succeeded by Sami, Freedman, who now presides at the press deak of the Tremont.

HOWARD ATHENENK—This time honored old West End house reopens 5 for its fiftieth season, it will remain—under the control of Geo. E. Lothrep, of the Grand Moseum, and other New England amusement enterprises, and the business management will still remain in the bands of Win. On July 29, 30, Milloecker's "The Begger Studen" was given, but yielded place July 31, Aug. 1, to Johann Strauss' "Die Fledermaus" ("The Bat"), which in turn was succeeded, Aug. 2, 3, by another of Strauss' musterpieces, "The Gypsy Baron.".... At PALMER'S THEATIEK, on the afternoon of July 30, a novel amusement scheme was put in operation for the first time, and with considerable success. It is an automatic basebail exhibitation. erable success. It is an automatic basebail exhibi-tion, wherein games played by the New York team with their competitors are faithfully reproduced by dummies which duplicate the movements of the runners, and by electric lights, which, shining alternately in the hands of immovable figures, show the changing locations of the ball. The three brothers, C. B., Thomas and Joseph W. Jeiferson, are the projectors of the enterprise, which is an-nounced to continue for three weeks. Games played in this city will be repeated automatically at night, while those played away from home will, by means of telegraphic report, be shown here during the progress of the game.... A new amusement re-sort, known as the Armessern, located on One Hundred and Twenty fifth Street near Lexington Avenue, Hariem, was opened July 29 as a vaude-ville house, under the management of H. W. KETTI'S UNION SQUARE.—The most entertaining and theroughly worling bill of the Summer resulted from the weekly change at this house, Monday, Aug. 5, and the audience that filled all the seats and slanding room space gave abundant evidence of its full appreciation of the performers' efforts. Bonnie Thornton, with a list of songs in keeping with her surroundings, is the principal feature, and on the occasion of her first appearance here she met a welcome that was as enthusiastic as it was well deserved. She was in such vigorous demand that her hearers would not permit her to quit until she had given six songs, only one of which was of olden vintage. Adder Purvis-Corricontributed a decidedity entertaining specially consisting of a slack wire performance, and serpentine dancing and juggling while standing upon a revolving globe. Her work is graceful and seemingly difficult, and her reception was fastiering in the extreme. Lini and Vini, a brace of accomplished acrobats, were also well rewarded for their work, and Impo Fox met his usual hearty greeting and applause. The Nawus entered their second and concluding week and continued in prince demand, although the present sketch is not so well filted to display Mr. Nawn's cleverness. The National Trio made themselves a place among the favorites of the night by their entertaining contribution, and Dryden and Mitchell repeated their past success at this resort. Famile Mora made her appearance at this house and won an abundance of well deserved applause for her sligging. She has vastly improved of iate and gives promise of a bright future. CASINO.—"The Sphinx" began on Aug. 5 the fifth and final week of 41s run. Upon that date several changes were made in the cast. Mrs. Laura Joyce Bell retired, and her role, Pieccha, was assumed by Minnie de Rue, Christie McDonaid surrendered her role of Shafra to Alicea Borke, and Arthur Pacte assumed the role of Nectaneios, previously filled by A S. Kingsley. "The Merry World" returns to this house 12.

Gathern Theatre.—' Tallby" remains a strong attraction. It is not only doing a remarkable business for the time of the year, but is winning receipts that would be at least satisfactory at any season. It began on Aug. 5 the seventeenth week of its run, and seems sufficiently strong to remain for months to come.

and seems suncernly saving at the week's list of people: Rexo and Reno, the Electric Quartet, Charles A. Allen, Billy Barlow, John M. Turner, Ella Caldwell, Jennie-Clifton, Harrie and Fields, La Petile Adelaide, Katle Rooney, Morton and Coleman, "Billy" Johnson, Wills and Halpin, Annie Edwards, Carrie Sweeney, Dorothy Drew, Freddie Hoke, Arlington and De Champ, and the Sisters Leigh.

Lactor of Theatre.—Manager Proctor continues to provide an excellent entertainment at this favorite place of amusement, and as he also succeeds in keeping the house delightfully cool he has little difficulty in having good sized houses day in and day out. The buil for week of Aug. 5 was fully up to its predecessors, and there was a good attendance day and night on Monday. Seils and Young, acrobatic duo, were accorded hearity applause, and the musical Holirooks proved themselves to be pleasing entertainers. Miles and Raymond, in a comedy sketch, were excellent, and received full approbation for their work. The Big Four, in a grotesque acrobatic act, were good, and Dorothy Drew, in songs, dances and high kicking, was well received. Others on the bill who made a bid for public favor were: Charles B. Lawlor, descriptive singer; Belle Black, character singer and burlesquer; Watson and Duppe, German eccentrics; Quatreili Brothers, Jugglers; Kitty Glimore, in songs; Rice and Halvers, in a mitror dance; Glimore and Boshell, in a sketch; Joe Flynn, parody stayer; the Freemans, sketch comedians; Bessie Varse, serio comic, and John D. Griffin, Irish comedian.

Koster & Bial's.—The warm weather of Aug. 5

be found anywhere on the island. The attraction this week is Sonsa's own newest march. "King Cotton," written for the coming exposition at Atlanta, and was played for the first time here night of Ang. 4, and was accorded much applanse. Two yocal soloists have been added to the list, Hartie Norton, a young soprano, and Perry Averili, the popular baritone. Rice's "1492" draws big crowds to each performance. Walter Jones, the comedian, who was injured recently while doing the tramp dance, is all right row and is as lively and reckless as ever. The Abbott Sisters and the old members of the company remain, and Gertrude Rudedge still sings "fen Bolt." Rice's Circus Carnival is another attractive feature at this pleasure resort. The Rosaires, acrobatic quartet, will remain for some time, judging from their popularity. Banner, the Morris wrestling pony, has replaced Muldoon. The boxing clowns, Tommy and Bobby, are there this week. La Bella Tina, a specialist, has been added. Pain's fireworks are as popular as ever and draw thousands of people to witness them.

PAUL BOYPON'S CHUTES.—"Shooting the Chutes' continues to be the chief attraction at West Brighton, C. L., and the larger part of the crowds, who daily visit this popular seaside resort, take rides on the chutes. Visitors are not the only ones who "shoot the chutes," as they are very popular with the people who reside on the island. Many interesting things have happened since the chutes were first opened to the public, but as yet the first accident is to be reported. Capt. Boyton's educated and performing seals are another attractive feature here.

Albany.—The Leland Opera House will open

Albany.—The Leland Opera House will open for a short midsummer season Ang. 5, with Gao Thatcher and Carrell Johnson's Twentieth Century Mustreb. This will also mark the opening of that company's season. Raymon Moore, in songs, will be a leature. On Ang. 6 "Borothy" will be sume by the same company of projessionals, headed by Dorothy Morion, that sam will-reseason also have been seen as the laster flower. Laster of the Co. will come 9.

HAMMANDS BLEECKER HALL will be under the immunes—mont of James H. Kelly the coming season. Mr. Kelly has in former seasons been stage manager of the hall. Primrose & West's Minstreis will show at the hall 21.
PAIN'S Fireworks attracted two large andiences 2 and 3 at Pleasure Island, notwithstanding rainy weather.

**Buffalo.**—At the Academy of Music W. S. Cleveland's Greater Mas-tve Minstrels broke the Summer lethargy, opening to good business Aug. 5, and indications point to big crowds for 6 and 7. The noon parade was by far the best thing of the kind yet seen in Buffalo, in its inilitary conduct, costuming and numbers. The manager, as usual, headed the van, distinguished from his followers by a black Prince Albert, the costuming of the people being in white, with stunning Continental hals. In the parade the white band was first, then came the principal white performers, then the Japanese troupe in Oriental costumes, the Arabs, the colored performers and the colored band in the order maned. Cheers were in order all along from North to Exchange Street, and the eighty-five members of the company and the half mile pageant owned the town indeed. Following is the roster: White vocalists—Manuel Romalne, Wm. Oliver, Bert Gilderoy, C. Edw. Dicken, Fred Anderton and E. W. Chipman, White comedians—Arthur Deming, J. Marcus Doyle, John H. Blackford, Billy Pearl, Edw. Gardner, Wm. Henry Rice, notwithstanding his Atlantic City shake up, appears in his Trilby burlesque; Marion and Fearl do their acrobatic vocasism: Saleem Massar's Arab Circus is also a feature. Win. De Boe presents his great electric lighted swinging trapeze act; Arthur Deming, John H. Blackford and C. E. Dicken give the farce, "Get the Money;" the whites against the blacks give a competitive battalion drill; Arthur Deming, In monologue, and extensive work by the end men and vocalists is but a brief description of the elaborate entertainment.

Others on the programme are John M. Traynor, lig dancer; T. E. Garlson, basso, and Pearl Evelynn, dancer.

Hopkins Theatre will strengthen, rather than detract from, the original house. In order that there be no misunderstanding it is perhaps in order to say that the theatre which will be referred to as the Hopkins in these columns is located on State Street, near Congress, and is the one that Col. John D. Hopkins has been managing successfully as a continuous performance house for nearly a year. The one that he opened 4 was formerly known as the Standard. It is located on the West Side, and will be distinguished from the original house by the designation, "West Side." At the Hopkins this wock the programme will be furnished by the Three Merrilees Sisters, Willis P. Sweatnam, the minstrel monologist: Australian Lady quartet, Bush, Moreland and Thompson, Burt Jordan, McRobbie and Evans, Annie Caldwell, Ada Melrose, Johnson Bros., Elnore Elmore. The stock company will present "Nobody's Claim."

Hoven's Thearre (West Side).—For the opening of the new house the vandeville list includes Lew Dockstader, Jennie Melville and Evie Setson, Melityre and Heath, Lizzle and Vinie Daly, O'Brien, Jonalosse equilibrist: Oberto, acrialist; Herman Zucker, vocalist; Donaldson Bros., gymnasts, and Caroliae Cooper. The annual Summer meeting of the New York State Chess Association, which began July 30, at Skaneateles, N. Y., and ended Aug. 2, proved to be one of the most successful meetings in the histor; of the Association. As usual, the principal event was the tournament for the challenge cup. For this Messrs. Delmar, Hodges, Richardson and Luce competed, representing the Metropolitan, Manhattan, Brooklyn and Rochester Chess Clubs, respectively. The prize contested for was The Statis Zeitung trophy, which was wen by Eugene Delmar, the Metropolitan's representative, with the good score of 45c games won, and 1½ lost. The play in this contest resulted as follows:

J. P. Reed sailed for Glasgow on July 27. He expects to play some checkers as soon as he gets on the other side. R. W. Patterson has also gone over, and Chas Kelly expects soon to go. America will be well represented in Scotland this Fall... One of the most notable events connected with Mr. Reed's visit to Brookiyn was the scores made by Melvin Brown and K. W. Spiller. Mr.

Brown held him even with three each and a number drawn, while Mr. Spiller did still better by the score of 1 to 0 and 1 draw. We learn that Mr. Reed also lost a game in Newark to 0. A. Blandin who also belongs to the progressive set in this continution. While stopping in Springfield, Mass. recently, we had the pleasure of meeting 0. B. Allen and Harner Smith. Mr. Allen defeated us by the score of Allen, 2. De Frest, 1, drawn, 2; and with Mr. Smith the score was; De F., 1; Smith, 0; drawn, 1. Both gentlemen made it very pleasant for us, for which we extend our sincere thanks. ... When Dr. Stayman underthe we will be the meeting of the member of the simmense amount of work he was compelled to do. He certainly exserves great credit for the able manner in which his handling his end of the argument. So tar he seems to have the best of it. His games with J. D. Brooklyn will be minus one of her star players during the month of August in the person of Melvin Brown, who will be in the Catskills.

AQUATIC. TWO VICTORIES FOR VIGILANT.

The N. Y. Y. C. Cruise Marred by Many Accidents—The Gould Craft Wins the Goelet Cup for Sloops and Emerald Retains the Schooner Trophy—A Big Fleet of Fast Yachts Sail the Sound.

The New York Yacht Club's fifty-first annual cruise was resumed July 30, with a run before the wind from Eaton's Point buoy, to New London Light, a distance of sixty-four nautical miles. Interest centered in the work of Vigilant and Defender, est centered in the work of vigitant and belender, and although the race resulted in a disappointment for the followers of the fin keel craft, through an ac-cident to her steering gear, it fell to Bayerd Thay-er's big schooner Constellation to furnish the prin-cipal event of the day, by showing her heels to the entire fleet during all of the run up the Sound. She made the distance in 4h. 36m. 37s. a record breaking gait for the course, her average speed being ing gait for the course, her average speed being fourteen nautical miles an hour. Huntington's Bay gave signs of life before sun up, and it was just past six o'clock when the flagship got into position. The morning was a bit smokey, but a stiff sailing breeze soon warmed into a heavy blow, and before all the boats were under way they had more than enough of air. The crafts were all away on their journey before seven o'clock, and before the afternoon was three hours gone all were at their moorings in New London harbor. Vigilant crossed the starting line ahead of Defender, and managed to hold her lead throughout the voyage. Defender set all sail and was well in pursuit when, just off Bartiett's Reef Lightship, and within three miles of the finish, her new fangled steering apparatus went wrong, and she was forced to drop out of the chase. Vigilant brought great credit to herself by her fleet passage, covering the course in 4h. 40m. 37s, an average of 13.7 miles an hour, and it was deeply regretted that Defender's accident forced her out of a comparison. THE Yacht Racing Association of Great Britain has been in court recently contesting with the heirs of the late Mr. Nottage in the matter of his bequest of $10,000 for the perpetuation of the Nottage Cup to be raced for annually by yachts over nineteer rating. The heirs opposed the bequest, and the court decided in their favor, holding that the gift was not a charity and was therefore invalid for controvening the rule against perpetuity. The Yacht Racing Association appealed and argued that the gift was for the benefit of the community at large, for a definite public object, and was therefore charitable. The court held, though, that it was a prize for mere sport, which could not be termed charitable, and therefore upheld the lower court. THE John Oxley Citub, of Jersey City, N. J., has arranged an hundred yards swimming race, open to members of all yacht and boat clubs, as a part of its programme of sport for its Labor Day celebration, Sept. 2.

A timely bunching of their hits enabled the Bostons to win again on Aug. 5. Nichols pitched a strong game, and his support at critical points was superb. Four fast double plays made at a time when the Philadelphias had men on the bases deprived them of several chances of scoring. Lowe played a great game at second base for the home team, accepting all of ten chances, and some of them were of the sensational order. Clements played in fine form for the visitors. Duffy led in batting. The long safe hits were a home run by Long, a triple bagger by Boyle and a double bagger by Lowe. Carsey was hit hard and at the right time.

New York vs. Brooklyn.

Better all round work helped the Brooklyns to a victory over the New Yorks on Aug. 2, at the Polo Grounds, in this city, when Umpire Burnham's decisions caused considerable wrangiing and kicking by both teams, who suffered equally at times, a'-though the visitors got the worst of it in the long though the visitors got the worst of it in the long run. Shoch was fined and put out of the game in the fourth inning for having too much to say. This necessitated a change in the make up of the Brooklyn team, Griffin going to short and Foutz to centre. Ruste retired at the end of the third inning, after the visitors had made five runs, although only one run was earned off his pitching. Clark, who was substituted, was hit hard at times, although only two runs were earned off his pitching. His support was poor, as was Rustle's. Fuller in particular had an "off day," and his errors were costly. Stein pitched effectively and was well supported outside of Griffin. The latter played finely notwithstanding his two errors, one of which gave the home team two runs in the second inning. Anderson and Van Haltren led their respective teams in batting. The long safe hits were a homer by Van Haitren, a triple by Davis and a double by Daly.

Pittsburg vs. St. Louis.

Superior all around work enabled the St. Louis Browns to defeat the Pittsburgs Aug. 5, at Pitts-Superior air around work emanged the St. Louis Browns to defeat the Pittsburgs Aug. 5, at Pittsburg. Pa. Ehret pitched effectively, and the Browns played a sharp, snappy game, the result of which was in doubt until the seventh inning, when the visitors bunched four safe hits and tallied three earned runs, virtually settling it. Ely and Beckley led their respective teams in batting. The long safe hits were a triple bagger by Beckley and a double by Cross. Despite his two errors, Ely played a reality orilliant game. Beckley's batting was a feature.

Ontario vs. Chicago.

A team of Canadian cricketers, cantained by c. Hyman, of the London (Ont) Club, played a series five games last week in Chicago, Ill., scoring an a broken succession of victories. The opening content took place July 29, when the Ontario twelve adoption of the content o sains contended with a picked team of the Chicago clubs and won easily, the respective total sheins: Obtario, 241 and 190 for eight wickets; Chicago, 170 and 151.

Three centuries were scored Aug. 3, in Philadelphia, Pa., and vicinity, each batsman then accomplished that feat for the second time this season. W. W. Foulkred made 181 runs of the total of 322 credited to the Beifield in an unfinished context with the Germantown Zingari, who had put on 33 for the loss of two wickets at the time of drawing stumps. J. B. King scored, in almost faultless form, 167 runs of the total of 271, made by the Tioga team against the F. R. R. team, the later getting $2 for the loss of seven not cort. The third century was H. C. Thayer's 25 of the 191 for the wickets, made is contribution to the total of 211 for the wickets, made is contribution to the total of 211 for the wickets, made is contributed to the deven and enabling that team to defeat the Wayner eleven, and each stored a creditable total against their opponents. cost of only 19 runs. As lower, than seven wickets at the N. F. Druce, who has the best batting average of the Cambridge University eleven, has made during the season now terminated scores of 199, not out, 116 and 109. F. Mitchell and H. H. Marriott, of the sat, e eleven, who rank third and fourth in the batting averages, and C. E. M. Wilson, who leads in bowling, together with N. F. Druce, will form a strong quartet of the English team that visits this city in September next. Mitchell made 191 and 155, not out, and Marriott scored 128 for the Cambridge electrons.

Visits this city in September next. Mitchell made 191 and 155, not out, and Marriott scored 128 for the Cambridge eleven.

The contest for the Halifax Cup, the emblem of the local championship of Philadelphia, Pa., has terminated in favor of the Germantown Club, ranks first in the tity, with a record of eleven victories and one defeat. G. S. Patterson, of the Germantown Club, ranks first in the batting averages, with C. Costes, of Belmont, second, and J. B. King, of Dioza, third in that respect. E. M. Gregar and J. B. King, of the Tioga team, load in bowling, being closely followed by G. G. Brooke, of Merion, and G. Patterson.

Only one championship contest of the New York Association took place Aug. 3, the first eleven of the Columbia Club, and the second eleven of the New Jersey Athletic Club then being scheduled to play at Central Park, in this city. The latter presented only eight men, but they managed to acore a victory of 37 to 30 in an one inning game, this result being mainly due to E. J. Darvell, who scored 50 for the New Jersey team.

The Ottawa eleven visited Montreal July 1 and played the local eleven, meeting with a defeat. The totals were Ottawa, 55 and 61; Montreal, 85 and 33, for three wickets. A curious feature was that M. G. Bristowe scored 32 of the 56 from the bat made by Ottawa in the second inning.

The largest total yet made in a championship contest of the Chicago Association was credited to the Wanderers, of that city, several weeks ago, they then putting on 210 for the loss of ten wickets, of which R. A. Edwards scored 125, not out, this being one of the comparatively few centuries compiled by Canadian cricketer.

M. R. Cobb made 107 rons and C. H. Ellis 87 runs of a total of 290 credited to the New Jersey Athletic Club.

N. R. Cobb made 107 runs and C. H. Ellis 87 runs of a total of 269 credited to the New Jersey Athletic Club, against the 8t. George Athletic Club, alugy 4, at Bergen Point, N. J., the pair putting on 172 in partnership for the third wicket. The 8t. George team made a total of 87, Cobb capturing seven wickets for only 27 runs. Eleven players named Martin played the Buffalo team. July 27, at Buffalo, N. Y., and the former won by 90 to 58, the totals of the first inning. F. O. Martin and his three sons and seven nephews made up the unique winning team.

Racing by the Seashore.

About three thousand persons gathered at the Manhattan Beach track, Coney Island, on Saturday atternoon, Aur. 3 to witness the anticipated fine racing at the second Joint meet of the National 'Cycle and Athletic Club and the Riverside Wheelmen, engaging both amateur and professional ridors. The weather was clear and pleasant, but stiff southwest wind militated sgainst the pleasant, but at time. The hero of the occasion was Harry Tyler, who carried off two of the professional events. The performances of Walter Sanger proved disappointing, his riding plaining showing that he was not at his best. Sammarly:

At a special meeting, July 26, the Press 'Cycle Club, of Boston, Mass., adopted resolutions peremptorily refusing to obey the mandates of the Racing Board of the League of American Wheel-men in a controversy between itself and the board. men in a controversy between itself and the board. By so doing the club, which is one of the greatest race promoters in the country, has shut itself of from further sanctions by the national board. The controversy between the club and the national board began when the chairman of the club's racing board gave checks to Sanger and Tyler as prizes for races June 17. Those men were then in Class B, but had announced their intention to become professionals. The chairman's action was formally repudiated by the club, and full admission of the 2 main made to the national board. Chairman Gideon, however, demanded to see the books of the club. This was objectionable to the club on the ground that such an exhibition would be unbusinesslike. Gideon insisted, and said that defiance would mean the forfeit by the club of its right to sanctions. The sentiment of the meeting was that the organization had acted honorably in the matter, and that the national board was acting too severely. After discussion, lasting twenty minutes, resolutions were adopted flatly refusing to grant the demands of the board.

Mr. Handolph was well known to billiard a few orse, Mr. Handolph was well known to billiard layers in his sixty-fith year, and for nearly fifty years be had been interested in billiards. He was superintendent of the billiard room in Taylor's Hotel in Jersey City, and also in the United States Hotel in this city for several years. He was an expert player, and at one time was regarded as the amateur champion of New Jersey. He managed all the Brooklyn tournaments as Maurice Daly's right hand man.

The excord for the greatest distance in a day for the year to date by a boming pigeon was made July 31 by two Roston birds. Sully and Tommy, in the journey from Buffalo, N. Y., to Boston, Mass. The start was of four birds from Buffalo at 7.01 a. M. The return was to the loft of Henry Wagner, in Roshindale, at 405 r. M. Counting the distance as 400 miles, the average speed would be about 1,50 yards. The next journey for these birds will be from a station in Canada that will give 500 miles distance.

Der There The ADS that are LETTERHEADS. Our theatrical letterheads are two well known to require any further mention, as the many orders pouring into our office daily from the leading managers and star performers, demonstrate sufficiently, that our efforts to make our establishment the foremost in its line for this class of work are being appreciated. For the past six meaths we have made a specialty of the new litho-imitation process, at a recognized low price for high class work, and have found asme to be a pronounced success. However, in order to prove to our competitors that we can also get up the minor grade of work usually applied to theatrical letterheads as cheap and even cheaper than any other house in the country, we extend the offer of elaborately designed letterheads from $5 up, thus placing them within the reach of all, and we respectfully request all those that wrote to us before and found our terms too all those that wrote to
